

The National Association of Nonprofits (NANPP) Member Privacy Policy

The National Association of Nonprofit Professionals (NANPP) is committed to respecting the privacy of our members.

We have developed this privacy policy to ensure that our member information will not be shared with any third party.

The National Association of Nonprofit Professionals (NANPP) provides this Member Privacy Policy to make you aware of our privacy policy and to inform you of the way your information is used. We also provide you with the opportunity to remove your name from our mailing list, if you desire to do so.

NANPP collects and uses various information from members that includes: amount paid, address, telephone number, member comments, and email address. NANPP will never sell, trade, rent, or share names (unless released for publication), email or postal addresses, or telephone numbers of our members. If released for publication, we will list the name of a member on our website and in printed marketing materials, but will remove said name from the list at any time upon request of the member.

NANPP will use contact information (email, postal address, and telephone number) solely for these purposes:

- Distribute receipts for membership
- Thanking members for becoming a member
- Inform members of upcoming activities and events
- Share the NANPP newsletter
- Internal analysis and recordkeeping
- To accept membership payments via credit card. NANPP uses accredited online payment processing services with industry standard levels of security and data privacy. Unless requested by the member for the purpose of processing recurring donations, NANPP does not store, nor does it have access to, the credit card information, bank account numbers, or any other account data sent to these processing services.

It is our desire to not send unwanted mail to our members. Please contact us if you wish to be removed from our mailing list. If you have questions regarding our Member Privacy Policy, please send us an email at info@nanpp.org or call us at 347-292-9920.
